Auction website:
www.bradfield-auction-of-promises.info

This catalogue lists some of the lots for sale by auction at the Bradfield CE Primary School Grand Auction of Promises on Friday 20th November 2009 at Bradfield Village Hall, Southend Road.

The evening will start at 7.30pm. Complimentary wine and bottled water will be at your table and there will be further refreshments available during the evening in exchange for a donation. We will also be providing light nibbles. The Auction itself will commence at 8.00pm.

If you are unable to attend the auction but would like to submit a bid for one or more promises, please complete the bidding form on the next page and send it to Carla Butler or Louise Hutchins c/o of the School Office by Wednesday 18th November.

For those who are attending, all lots must be paid for and collected during the evening. When each lot is complete, the successful bidder will be given an invoice by one of the auction assistants. You will be able to pay that invoice immediately (to the auction assistant), or wait until the interval or the end of the evening to pay the auction bookkeeper. Once full payment has been made you will receive an envelope giving you the details of your promise – contact details, terms and conditions etc. You must keep this safe as this will act as your proof of purchase.

Please note that promises must be paid for by cheque or cash only. Please bring your guarantee card with you if paying by cheque. Credit and debit cards will not be accepted.

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure promises of goods and services are as described by the companies and individuals donating them, Bradfield Primary School Governors offer the lots as seen and in good faith. Bear in mind that many of the lots offered by parents and friends of the school involve them giving up their spare time, so please be reasonable in arranging when or how the promise is fulfilled. Also please note that some promises have expiry dates or other restrictions on them. If no expiry date is specified, may we suggest that you contact the individual who has offered the promise within six months to let them know whether you still plan to use the item.

A more detailed version of this catalogue (including all lots in numerical order) is available from the auction website and will be updated prior to the event: www.bradfield-auction-of-promises.info

Remember to keep your entrance ticket with you throughout the evening – it will act as your bidding card.

Finally we would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have supported both this event, and The Primary Project. Have a good evening!

You will be informed by email or telephone (or failing that, by post) if you placed the winning bid. Payment can be made by cash or cheque (made out to 'The Primary Project'). You will then be given your item or informed how to claim your promise.

Sealed bids must be handed in to the School Office by 3.15pm Wednesday 18th November. Please place them in an envelope labelled "Grand Auction of Promises".

Auction of Promises – Rules

1. All lots are offered subject to availability and may be withdrawn at any time.
2. You must show that you are bidding by raising your Bidder Number into the air. Please do not nod, wink or tap the side of your nose! And please be quick, as there are almost 100 items to get through.
3. Once the hammer has gone down, the lot is irrevocably sold, whether or not someone else claims to have made, or wants to make, another bid.
4. The Auctioneer has the right to withdraw any lot from sale at any time before the hammer goes down if a reasonable price (in his view) has not been obtained, whether or not any bid has been made. You may approach the Auctioneer after the event if you are interested in making an agreeable offer for an unsold item.
5. Other than those which may be sold by a Written Bid, all lots must be collected and paid for (in cash or by cheque) before the end of the auction. No lot will be handed over unless it has been paid for on the evening and any uncollected lots may be sold or otherwise disposed of by the event organisers
6. All lots are sold without warranty as to their content, validity or value. Neither the auctioneer, the Governors, the PTA, the School nor West Berkshire Council accept any responsibility for the failure of any donor to honour their tickets or vouchers, nor any loss or damage howsoever arising.
